LSSC SALT LAKE CITY SKI TRIP, FEBRUARY 2013

by Dan Geiger, Trip Leader

Our group of five arrived in SLC at 10:30 AM which allowed us to ski free that day under the Park City area Quick Start Program. Of the three resorts available we chose Deer Valley and enjoyed a half day of skiing.

During the next four days we used the Salt Lake Super Pass and skied Snow Bird, Alta (twice) and Brighton. Snow conditions were excellent due to heavy snow fall prior to our arrival. Temperatures were ideal, ranging from 15-25 degrees F. Mari Davis, Ron Garnett (new member) and I took lessons at Alta. Dave and Marilyn (ski instructors) coached the group.

Each morning we enjoyed the breakfast buffet at the Crystal Inn. Each evening we relaxed during Happy Hour in the hot tub and sampled SLC's many fine restaurants.

A great trip in all respects!

EUROPE: MARCH 2013

On March 2, 2013 LSSC and other OVSC trippers will be heading on the first leg of the European tour and ski trip for 2013. LSSC trip leader Janet Jones will head the group of 20 from Lexington that will start in Romania and end at the Interlaken area of Switzerland or the post-trip to Zermatt and the Matterhorn. Wishing safe and happy travels to those heading to Europe. We look forward to pictures and stories upon your return!

SOUTH LAKE TAHOE, NEVADA: MARCH 2013

The Way It Should Be

LSSCers are also headed to South Lake Tahoe during March. Trip Leader Catherine Monzingo will lead the sold out trip that will cover the slopes of Kirkwood, Heavenly and Northstar. Who knows? They might even get lucky at some of Reno's famed casinos! Safe travels and skiing to all!
